LIST OF IMF MEMBER COUNTRIES WITH DELAYS IN COMPLETION OF ARTICLE IV CONSULTATIONS OR MANDATORY FINANCIAL STABILITY ASSESSMENTS OVER 18 MONTHS

IMF staff regularly produces papers proposing new IMF policies, exploring options for reform, or reviewing existing IMF policies and operations. The Report prepared by IMF staff and completed on June 15, 2018, has been released.

The staff report was issued to the Executive Board for information. The report was prepared by IMF staff. The views expressed in this paper are those of the IMF staff and do not necessarily represent the views of the IMF's Executive Board.

The IMF's transparency policy allows for the deletion of market-sensitive information and premature disclosure of the authorities' policy intentions in published staff reports and other documents.

LIST OF IMF MEMBER COUNTRIES WITH DELAYS IN COMPLETION OF ARTICLE IV CONSULTATIONS OR MANDATORY FINANCIAL STABILITY ASSESSMENTS OVER 18 MONTHS

Approved By
Martin Mühleisen

Prepared by Strategy, Policy, and Review Department in consultation with the Communications, Legal, Secretary's and Area Departments.

In accordance with Executive Board Decision No. 15106-\(12/21\), the Fund will publish on its external website a list of member countries whose Article IV consultations or mandatory financial stability assessments have been delayed by more than 18 months, as of June 15, 2018, since the expected deadline for conclusion.

The latest version of this list, as shown in Appendix I, will be published on the Fund's external website on or after June 27, 2018.

Appendix I. List of IMF Member Countries with Delays in Completion of Article IV Consultations or Mandatory Financial Stability Assessments over 18 Months

In line with the framework for addressing excessive delays in the completion of Article IV consultations, the following table lists the IMF members for whom the Article IV consultation has been delayed by more than 18 months as of June 15, 2018. The delay is counted as the time elapsed from the stipulated date for the consultation plus any applicable grace period. As of June 15, 2018, no IMF member has its mandatory financial stability assessment delayed by more than 18 months.

^{1/} The status and classification of countries are as of June 15, 2018.
^{2/} Excluding three-month grace period, where applicable, for member countries without a Fund arrangement, PCI, or PSI.
^{3/} Reasons for delay are explained below.
^{4/} The delay measures the lag between the stipulated date of completion of the next Article IV consultation plus the three-month grace period, where applicable.
^{5/} Staff conducted discussions for the 2018 Article IV consultation with Haiti during June 4-15, 2018, and the consultation is expected to be completed by the Board in the coming weeks.

Note: Taxonomy of the Reasons for Delays of Article IV Consultations

Article IV consultations are delayed for a variety of reasons. For the purpose of monitoring delays, Fund staff groups the reasons into the following categories. It should be recognized, however, that a delay may have more than one reason.

- Program-related issues: Delayed (i) in order to combine the consultation with a request for use of Fund resources (UFR), Policy Support Instrument (PSI), Policy Coordination Instrument (PCI), or program review; or (ii) due to ongoing discussions on UFR or PSI, or continued work on program review.
- Further discussions: Delayed due to further discussions with the authorities on economic developments and policies.
- Political/security situation: Delayed due to the unsettled political and/or security situation.
- Government change: Delayed due to forthcoming or recent elections, change of government, or changes within government.
- Staffing constraints.

- Authorities' request: Delayed at the request of the authorities due to, for example, their inability to host the mission as a result of their work schedule.
- No agreement on mission dates/modalities: There was no agreement on the modalities for the mission/the authorities have not communicated dates for the Article IV consultation mission.
- Miscellaneous: Includes reasons not accommodated above.
